BURGLARY SUSPECT ARRESTED

Hampton police arrested Kevin Waugaman, a 25 year old without a permanent address, charging him with offenses related to the burglary of local churches.

Waugaman was sought by authorities for committing a series of burglaries involving Hampton churches. The investigation indicates that between November 7, 2004 and February 22, 2005, during the hours of darkness Waugaman forced entry into the churches and removed electronics equipment, property and U.S. currency.

Detectives utilized an increased police presence, low tolerance policing, and surveillance by the Fugitive Apprehension Squad to identify Waugaman. Additionally, investigators recovered property taken in the crime from his person.

Detectives charged Kevin Allen Waugaman with six counts of breaking and entering with the intent to commit a felony, two counts of grand larceny, two counts of petit larceny, and altering a serial number.

Corporal Jimmie Wideman will receive questions about this release at 757-727-6638.
